Florida has 17 colonies, each representing a geographic area. Regardless of who your Mayflower ancestor is, members generally affiliate with the closest colony to their permanent or winter residence. Members of the Stephen Hopkins Colony not only include descendants of Stephen

Hopkins, but also include descendants of most of the other passengers who arrived on the Mayflower at Plymouth in 1620. In the past two years, our membership base has enjoyed many new members, who are all interested in further exploring and learning about their Mayflower ancestors and the challenges that faced them in the New World. We hope you can join us as a guest and prospective member.

Cordially,
Brian McWaters, Governor bmch2o@aol.com
